

Joe's Movement Emporium
Arts Education
Program Aide

Overview

The Arts Education Department of Joe's Movement Emporium provides year-round service in the visual and performing arts for children ages 4-12. During the school year, elementary school children spend the afternoons in a licensed childcare program. On a daily basis, more than 60 minutes of movement, a nutritious snack and classes in multiple art forms are offered from 2pm-6pm. In the summer, full day camp is available with sessions designed to expose children to world art traditions through the arts 7:30am-6pm.

An excellent candidate has the ability to motivate children through positive reinforcement. Staff must interact with children in a way that will draw them into group activities and utilize conflict resolution tactics to help groups work together and solve problems. Children should be instructed and guided with kindness because Joe's is a safe, nurturing, happy space for them. It is important for staff to participate in classes so children know what to do while watching the teachers.

Aides play, create and participate in activities with children and help generate a safe environment by monitoring small groups. Caring for the children, as well as the space, are key elements of this position. It is important for staff to participate in classes so children know what to do while watching the teachers.

Culture

Every Program Aide is important to the team. A commitment to show up on time and in time to perform duties which may include those assigned to others will make each day successful. Everything is done for the benefit of the children. Lead by example and be a team-player. Help the program and co-workers in every possible manner. Classes should be calm and engaging. A willingness to adapt to changes and child-focused environment is desired within the facility.
